Leadership Styles

Leadership Styles

Autocratic Leadership (独裁型领导)

代表人物：任正非（华为创始人）

特点：

高度集权：任正非在华为早期推行“军事化管理”，强调执行力和危机意识，重大决策由高层主导。

结果导向：提出“狼性文化”，要求员工对目标绝对服从，例如“24小时待命”的口号。

危机驱动：通过“华为的冬天”等内部警示，强化紧迫感，推动全员应对挑战。

影响与评价：

优势：在华为国际化初期，快速决策和执行力助力技术突破（如5G）与市场扩张。

争议：高压文化可能导致员工身心压力，近年华为转向“弹性奋斗”，弱化狼性标签。

Leadership Styles

Free-rein Leadership (放任型领导)

代表人物：张小龙（微信创始人）

特点：

信任团队：张小龙在微信开发中给予工程师极大自主权，鼓励“用产品说话”，减少层级干预。

目标模糊化：早期微信团队仅设定“连接人与服务”的模糊方向，具体路径由团队探索。

扁平化管理：微信事业部保持小团队架构，避免大公司僵化，快速迭代功能（如小程序）。

影响与评价：

优势：激发创造力，微信从社交工具演变为超级应用（支付、公众号、小程序），颠覆行业。

风险：依赖核心人物的远见，若战略方向偏差可能导致资源浪费。

Leadership Styles

Participative Leadership (参与型领导)

代表人物：雷军（小米创始人）

特点：

透明决策：雷军倡导“和用户交朋友”，通过论坛、发布会直接收集用户反馈，参与产品设计（如MIUI系统迭代）。

扁平化结构：小米早期取消KPI，采用“生态链合伙人制”，鼓励员工自主创新。

共享愿景：提出“让全球每个人都能享受科技带来的美好生活”，将个人目标与企业使命绑定。

影响与评价：

优势：用户参与增强品牌忠诚度，小米生态链快速扩展（手机、家电、IoT）。

挑战：过度依赖用户意见可能导致产品定位分散，近年转向“技术为本”强化研发。

Leadership Styles

Transformational Leadership (变革型领导)

代表人物：马云（阿里巴巴前董事局主席）

特点：通过“梦想驱动”激发员工热情，塑造“让天下没有难做的生意”的共同愿景。

实践：用武侠文化打造团队凝聚力，亲自授课传递价值观。

Servant Leadership (服务型领导)

代表人物：张一鸣（字节跳动创始人）

特点：强调“Context, not Control”（提供上下文而非控制），通过透明信息共享赋能团队。

实践：字节跳动内部推行“飞书”协作工具，鼓励员工自主决策，减少层级审批。

Differences Between You and Your Boss

“Managers are people who do things right, while leaders are people who do the right thing.” What is your opinion on the difference between leadership and management?

“There are particular people that others will follow, for whatever reason. Perhaps they have a sense of humor, or they like their style.” Do you believe there are such people?

Efficient Meetings

SMALL BUSINESS SURVEY

How Managers Run Meetings Efficiently

A recent survey asked managers of small firms how they run meetings. The following figure identifies some common methods of running a meeting efficiently, along with the percentage of respondents who use each method.

The results suggest that many managers attempt to keep meetings organized by defining the meeting's purpose and addressing each item on the agenda. However, most managers do not specify questions to be addressed for each agenda item.

Review & Critical Thinking Questions

Discuss the various types of planning functions within a firm. With which type of planning function would the president of a firm most likely be involved?

Review & Critical Thinking Questions

The various types of planning functions are as follows:

- a. The mission statement describes the firm's primary goal and is typically general in nature.
- b. A firm's strategic plan is intended to identify the firm's main business focus over a long-term period, perhaps three to five years.
- c. Tactical planning normally focuses on a short-term period, such as the next year or so.
- d. Operational planning establishes the methods used for the near future (such as the next year) to achieve the tactical plans.
- e. Contingency planning involves the development of alternative plans for various possible business conditions.

Review & Critical Thinking Questions

Describe the different leadership styles.
Explain which style would be most appropriate if a manager wanted to consult with an employee before making a decision.

Review & Critical Thinking Questions

The different leadership styles are (1) autocratic, (2) free rein (also known as “laissez-faire”) and (3) participative.

The autocratic leadership style retains full authority for decision making. Employees have little or no input. Employees are told what to do and are discouraged from being creative.

The free-rein management style delegates much authority to the subordinates. This is the opposite of the autocratic style. Free-rein managers communicate goals to employees. The employees, then, are free to choose how to complete the goals.

Review & Critical Thinking Questions

The participative style allows the leaders to accept some input from subordinates, but the leaders usually use their authority to make decisions. Participative managers encourage employees to express their opinions, but do not pressure employees to make major decisions.

If a manager desires to consult with subordinates before making major decisions, the manager would use the participative style, since it involves obtaining employee input and required frequent communication between managers and employees.
